Ports and Sherry

Graham's Fine White Port 50ml £4

The Fine White is a slightly sweeter blend than the Extra Dry. This is achieved by fermenting the grape must for a slightly shorter time to preserve the natural sugars in the fruit. Served chilled

Graham's Tawny Port 10 years old 50ml £5.50

The Tawny is a very fine Graham's Aged Tawny. Matured for an average of seven to nine years in seasoned oak casks, this is Graham's Master Blender's personal interpretation of a fine, old, wood-mature fortified wine

Taylor's Vintage Port 50ml £5

Deep red colour. Lovely aromas of eucalyptus, fresh mint and Gum cistus. Very rich and full-bodied on the palate, packed with layers of red fruit flavours balanced by peppery tannins

Nectar Pedro Ximénez Sherry 50ml £5.50

A bottle of sweet Pedro Ximénez sherry from Gonzalez Byass. Very much a dessert sherry (though it's tasty on its own)

Dessert Wine

Chateau Les Mingets Sauternes

Country: France | Region: Bordeaux | Grape Variety: Chardonnay, Pinot Nero

Tasting Notes: This is a concentrated, luscious dessert wine showing intense flavours of caramelized fruits, pear, melon and almond, all balanced by good acidity

Food pairing: Foie gras, a wide variety of desserts and soft blue cheeses 75ml £6.50

Welcome to Churche's Mansion!

Built in 1577, the historic Churche's Mansion has stood not only the test of time, but also The Great Fire of Nantwich.

It's proved itself to be one of the finest timber buildings in Cheshire, by adapting to the many roles it has had.

We're so proud to be giving this fantastic building a new lease of life as a specialist fish restaurant and bar, opening up the Mansion back to the people of Nantwich once again.

After surviving The Great Fire of Nantwich in 1583, Churche's Mansion is one of the oldest historic buildings in Cheshire.

It was one of the few not to have been destroyed in the twenty-day fire, with many citing the golden Salamander carved into the building as its protector. Today, it is one of the most complete half-timbered buildings in the county.

Built in mighty Cheshire oak and lined with oak panelling, Churche's Mansion maintains many of its original features. Originally built in 1577, these walls have witnessed 440 years of history, stories and secrets.

The crafted decorative windows that make the building so striking were added to commemorate Churche's Mansion's 400th anniversary by the then current occupier of this historic building, The Myott Family.

Now in 2019, we are only the fifth family to have ownership of Churche's Mansion in over 400 years. It's something we're very humbled by and proud to carry forward.

Following working in the food industry for over 20 years, we were after a new adventure.

Travelling to Nantwich to visit the Mansion, it was at first sight that we knew this was the project we had been waiting for. We fell in love not only with the character of the building, but the history and the location. Nantwich is a perfect place to raise our 3 children, and we are so grateful that our dream restaurant was in such a perfect place.

We want to keep the building alive for generations to come and create a place for people to have great food, great wine and great company.

We understand a lot of people have fond memories associated with Churche's Mansion.

So, we are pleased we're opening the building back up to the public. If you have an experience, you'd like to share with us - please do! We love hearing how the building has had an impact on people's lives...it certainly has on ours!

Thank you for visiting the Mansion!
Sophia and Kyri Haelis
